Wheat Gives 'Way on Bearish News, but Closes on Firm Basis.

CORN PURSUES VARIED COURSE DURING DAY

Oats Shows a Slight Weakness and Provisions Close Irregularly Lower-Yews is Generally Depressing.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.-Wheat was weak on bearish statistics most of the session, but steady on covering by shorts, December %c lower and May unchanged. Corn was affected by changing, December closing wayse lower and May a shade Oats closed a shade lower. Provisions closed irregularly lower, January pork losing 5c, January lard 7%c and Janu-

Wheat opened weak and lower. Statistics were bearish, as expected, and the market showed the effect by opening %0%c under Saturday's close, December at 65%05%c and May at 70\2470\2c, prices which were considerably below puts. The depressing of news was even more emphatic than tone of news was even more emphatic than had been expected. World's shipments for last week were over the estimate, Russia looming up with 2,009,000 bu., making the aggregate $5,799,000 bu. Liverpool was weak all day and reported a good increase in stocks. Local stocks increased more than could be accounted for in the making of two private houses regular and the visible, with the lakes yet to report, increased 2,125,000 bu. With the exception of a few damage reports from Illinois and Ohio crop conditions were reported perfect. Buying against puts and a little covering by shorts caused a little rally following the opening. December failed to hold against the liquidation which set in at the buige and continued scattering but persistent till the close, December, owing to the changing of that option for the more distant future, sold off to 665466696c, while May advanced and held steady. Near the end of the session those who had sold short Saturday bought liberally to cover. December advanced to 674c and May to 714c, at which prices they closed. Save the animation of the close the market was dull and heavy all day. Trading was principally in the way of changing from December to May contracts. Receipts were liberal. Primary points reported 1,289,569 bu., compared with 2,019,210 a year ago. Duluth and Minneapolis reported 1,284 cars, as against 1,542 last week and 1,836 the corresponding day last year. Local receipts were 107 cars, nineteen of contract grade. Atlantic port clearances were equal in wheat and flour to 512,000 bu. New York had been expected. World's shipments for Atlantic port clearances were equal in wheat and flour to 512,000 bu. New York reported nineteen loads taken for export. Atlantic port clearances were equal in wheat and flour to 512,000 bu. New York reported nineteen loads taken for export.

Corn was comparatively steady at the opening desplie the weakness of wheat. The opening was ¼c under Saturday's close, December at 31½631¼c and May at 32¼60 32¾c. Country offerings were early reported very small, while the decrease in the domestic visible—923,000 bu.—was larger than expected. These factors sustained the price for some time, but December, which was being changed for the May option, was heavily sold later in the session and declined sharply. May holding its own. December ranged from 30½631c to 31½621%c. May ranged from 32¼c to 32½6632%c and closed a shade higher at 33½c. The local stock decreased 534,000 bu. Receipts were 283 cars. Clearances were small—182,000 bu.

Oats were weak and a shade lower with other grains. Little business was done and fluctuations were narrow. The local stock showed a decrease of 73,000 bu. The sample market held steady and there was a good demand for cash, 300,000 bu. being taken here for shipment. The visible supply decreased 257,000 bu. and stocks here became 25,000 bu. smaller. Receipts here were 283 cars. December opened at 22¼6622½c, ranged from 28¼c to 22½c, closing at 23¼c.

Provisions were heavy early with grain and falled to improve even when the cereals advanced. The supply of hogs was liberal and prices for them lower, a fact which was also an influence. The range of prices was small. a little unimportant liquidation by commission houses being most of the business transacted. January pork closed 5c lower at $3,55, January ribs a shade lower at $4,521464.95 and January lard 5c lower at $5,17½.

Estimated receipts tomorrow: Wheat, 110 cars; corn, 230 cars; oats, 180 cars; hogs, 23,000 head.

weak to the point bordering upon utter demoralization in several departments, this being particularly frue of tin. Notwithstanding the recent serious declines offers were made at much lower prices as soon as the market opened, sellers being prompted to take this course by weak English cables and bad reports from the west. MOVEMENTS OF STOCKS AND BONDS After a Slight Hesitation the Market

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.-The stock marks ward. There was no backset during the day and the market closed quiet and firm at about the top level and at an average of prices a point or more above that of Saturday. The early hesitation was caused by the general conviction that the increased deficit in the banks' surplus reserve shown by the Saturday statement would necessitate a large loan contraction. There was a large demand for money during the day, but it became manifest early that there was an abundant supply. The bears who sold stocks Saturday in anticipation of forced liquidation became promptly today to buy to cover their short contracts. This was a considerable element in the day's strength. So, also, was the buying for London account, which reached as high as 50,000 shares. This buying, besides its direct effect, had a sentimental influence as indicating a reserve force in that market against possible withdrawals of gold for shipment to New York. The course of the foreign exchange market during the day was characterized as demoralized. Demand sterling was at one time during the day was characterized as demoralized. NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—COTTON—Liquidation was the leading feature of the speculation on the Cotton exchange most of the day and the course of prices practice. of the day and the course of prices practically from the start was steadily downward. In response to our upturn of Saturday Liverpool opened considerably higher this morning and for a time showed a healthy undertone. The strength abroad higher this morning and for a time showed a healthy undertone. The strength abroad induced room traders and a number of investors to take hold at the opening, with the result that the feeling was steady. Prices were 1 point lower to 3 points higher. Subsequent events proved the initial quotations to be about the top of the day. Soon after the opening the foreign news took a turn for the worse, and, led by the bears, selling was general. Exporters lent their aid toward depressing the market, as did the foreign contingent. Notwithstanding predictions of a week or ten days ago that in view of tremendous purchases by the European spinners and American manufacturers a much larger movement was naturally in order, shorts endeavored to make capital of the increase reported today. Wall street expressed confidence in the ultimate course of its holdings under the fear that a serious break was at hand under sheer weight of long stuff piled up on the break. Stop orders were sent in and the market showed a net loss of 22628 points. The close was barely steady, with prices 569 points under Saturday's close, the market showed a net loss of 22628 points. The close was barely steady, with prices 569 points under Saturday's close, the market having partially recovered on covering.
